

LEGENDARY COMICS COACH IN NEW BOOK!

Milford, USA- Gil Thorp fans can celebrate Gil Thorp's® Golden Anniversary with TALES FROM THE BUCKET the just published classic collection authored and illustrated by Gil Thorp® creator the late Jack Berrill. The 15 stories reprinted for the first time in Tales From The Bucket span Mr. Berrill's tenure at the helm of the longest running sports serial strip in history. Included among the tales are: star running back Don Adams' romantic conundrum; hoops star Ray "The Magician" Merlin's family dilemma; hoops guard Jeff Owens fight for his reputation; Gil's bungled marriage proposal to actress Holly Dobbs; pint-sized point guard Willie Knox's bewitched basketball season; diamond man Greg Nessen's struggle to escape his older brother's shadow; highly recruited gridder Lonnie Baylor's difficult college decision; left fielder Scott Bryant's dangerous reunion; Abby Andrews' struggle to deal with her parents crumbling relationship; wide receiver Keith Bell's brush with the dark side and Orin Lake's attempt to repair his bad reputation Also included are four summer stories as well as a section reprinting Mr. Berrill's teen advice strip, Teen Wise, that ran from 1966-76. Tales From The Bucket (8 ½" x 11", 332 pages) is available exclusively via mail order from Take Five Productions. Inquiry's can be made at take_five@comcast.net.

Take Five Productions, P.O. Box 1094, Arlington Heights, IL 60006
847.710.4391 take_five@comcast.net